

Culture Continuity Report Infographic

5 Drivers That Impact Employee Engagement during COVID-19

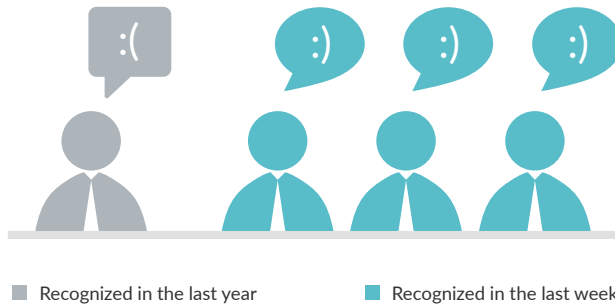

1 The #1 predictor of employee engagement is how well an individual's personal values align with their company's values

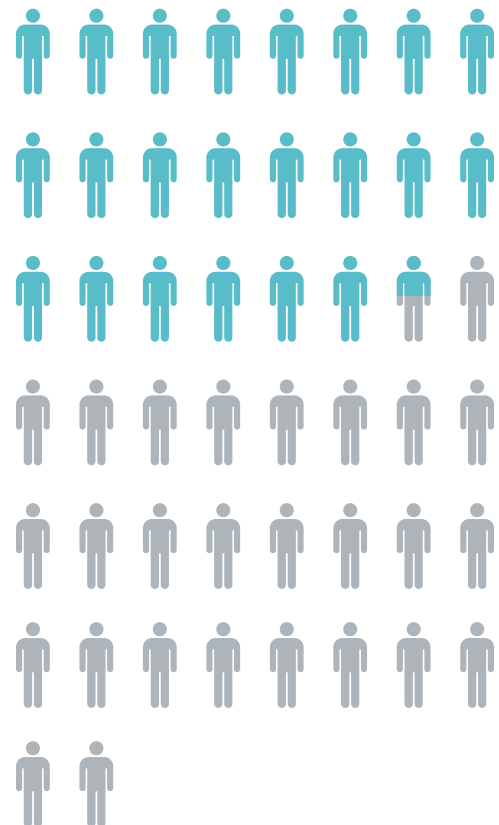

2 40% of respondents feel unrecognized for their work during COVID-19

3 Employees recognized in the last week are three times more likely to be engaged than those recognized in the last year

4 43% of respondents do not feel well supported during COVID-19

5 Organizations that better aligned their business decisions to their company's values had higher employee engagement

